

THE GOOD NEWS

A STUDY IN THE GOSPEL OF MARK

Pastor Ben Miller | 05.22.22 | Mark 7:24-37

Series Vision:

NOW is the time to tell others the good news of Jesus Christ, the Son of God.

Big Idea:

Come to Jesus with nothing because he graciously gives us everything for our salvation.

1. Come to Jesus with no entitlement because he graciously gives us deliverance. (7:24-30)
2. Come to Jesus with no understanding because Jesus graciously gives us ears to hear. (7:31-35)
3. Come to Jesus with no words because Jesus graciously gives us a message. (7:35-37)

Discussion and Application Questions:

1. Is there any sense of entitlement in your approach to Jesus? Have you embraced the offense of the gospel that says you are not worthy of salvation, but Jesus is exceedingly gracious? Do you ever try to hide the offense of the gospel when telling others about Jesus?

2. Do you understand how all the scriptures are fulfilled in Christ? Do you ask Jesus to help you understand every time you approach his word? What steps could you take to “hear” the words of Scripture in a more Christ-centered way?

3. Are you eager to give testimony to Jesus' powerful work in your life? Why or why not? If/when you do give testimony, who is in the spotlight: you or Jesus? Practice reciting or writing a testimony of all God has done in your life, keeping Jesus in the spotlight.

Question 14

Did God create us unable to keep his law?

No, but because of the disobedience of our first parents, Adam and Eve, all of creation is fallen; we are all born in sin and guilt, corrupt in our nature and unable to keep God's law.

Catechism Verse to Memorize:

Therefore, just as sin came into the world through one man, and death through sin, and so death spread to all men because all sinned.
